

2020 INSTITUTE FOR THE NEW MAN FINANCIALS

I. FRIENDS OF MAN

Every dollar that you contribute to Friends of Man goes 100% to help people in need!

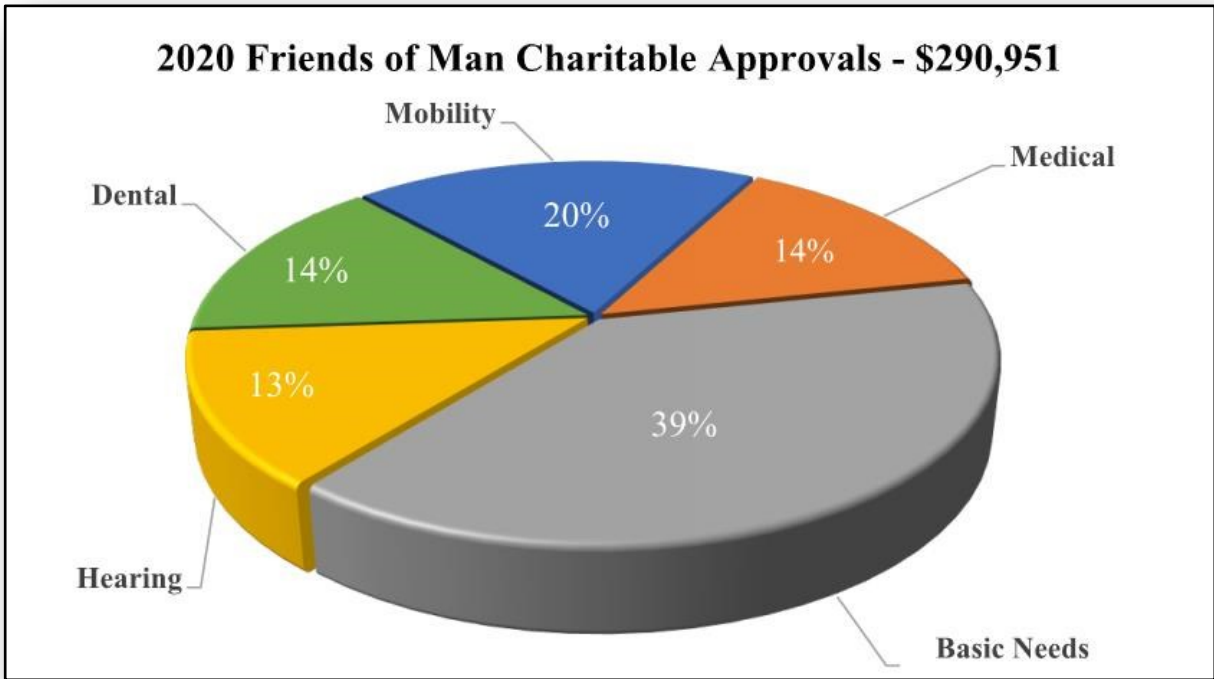

No money that you contribute to Friends of Man is ever used to pay for the administrative costs and expenses for operating the charity. All of these costs and expenses are paid for by the core group of volunteers through their donations to the Institute for the New Man, Inc. (see below). No one in the organization receives a salary or compensation of any kind.

FRIENDS OF MAN FINANCIAL STATEMENT

II. INSTITUTE FOR THE NEW MAN

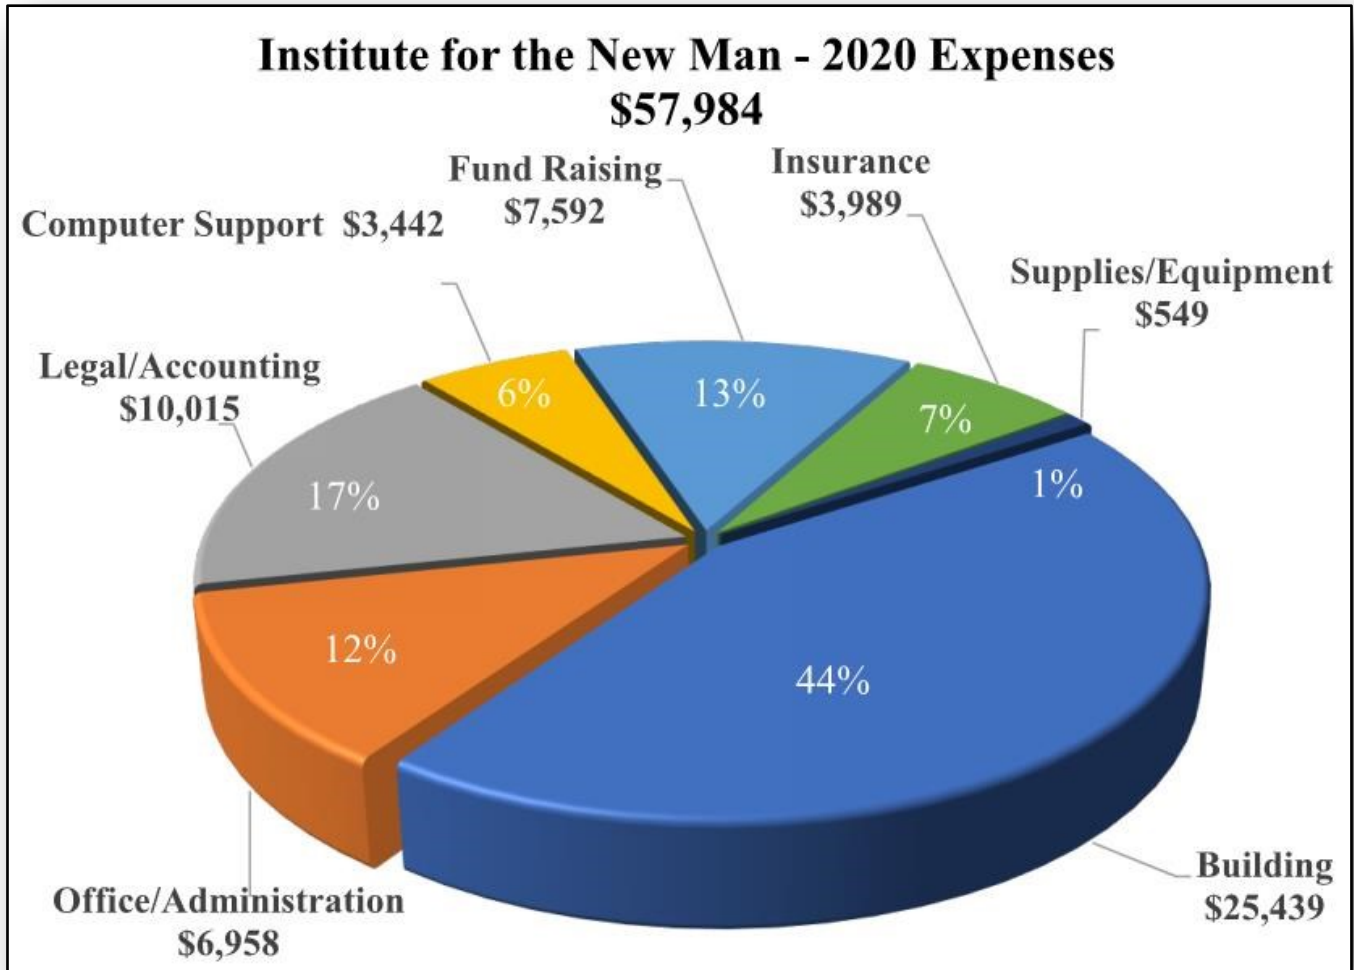

The Institute for the New Man (“IFNM”) is funded by donations from the core group of volunteers. These funds are used to pay all administrative costs and expenses for operating Friends of Man. There are NO SALARIES. The volunteers donate either time, skill, money — or all three. The funds of both IFNM and Friends of Man are strictly segregated and used only for their intended purposes. The annual independent audit of IFNM d/b/a FOM shows this segregation.
